Wave Farm's WGXC 90.7-FM, a creative community radio station in Greene & Columbia counties, is pleased to present the second annual Lodge at Riedlbauer's Resort in Round Top, NY on Friday, August 21 and Saturday, August 22, 2015. Proceeds from the event will benefit the non-commercial local radio station WGXC 90.7-FM. Lodge features two nights of live music from Herbcraft, MV & EE, Pigeons, P.G. Six, and Rhyton, radio and camp games across Riedlbauer's lush grounds, prizes from local businesses, and more to be announced. Early bird tickets are available until June 15 for $15 at wgxclodge2015.brownpapertickets.com.

In 2014, WGXC 90.7-FM was invited by Riedlbauer's Resort to produce a fundraising event on the pristine grounds. This culminated in a one-night concert under the pavilion at Nussy's Bier Garten, featuring regional artists including Palm and Bishop Allen. This year's newly-revamped summertime Lodge kicks off at 5 p.m. on Friday, August 21 with live music from The Roving Cowboys, an old-time country band who will perform under the pavilion at Nussy's Bier Garten, surrounded by green Catskill peaks. A late-night dance competition will follow, with prizes awarded to winners. Friday night's activities are free and open to all ages.

On Saturday, August 22, following an afternoon of retro day-camp inspired games and competitions, Lodge culminates with live music from Herbcraft, MV & EE, Pigeons, P.G. Six, and Rhyton. This stellar roster brings together a group of artists from various poles of the psychedelic, rock, and folk worlds to perform in this unique outdoor setting. Performances will kick off at 7 p.m. with WGXC's DJ Lunar Moss contributing interstitial sounds throughout the night. Tickets are required for this part of the evening, and are available at wgxclodge2015.brownpapertickets.com. All sales proceeds will benefit WGXC 90.7-FM.

ABOUT THE BANDS:

Once the isolationist bedroom-psych project of Matt Lajoie, the intervening years have found Portland Maine's Herbcraft (Woodsist) sprawling out in many different full-band incarnations. Psychedelic, mantric, free-rock music for the mind and body, featuring freewheeling first-take intensity anchored by the unhinged electric guitar work from Lajoie.

Hailing from Vermont, MV & EE (Ecstatic Peace, Three Lobed, etc.) is the ever-expanding and contracting neo-psych lo-fi collective always anchored by Matt Valentine and partner Erika Elder. Since 2000, the duo has released dozens of recordings, ranging from full-on Crazy Horse-infused wailing, to ephemeral soundscapes threatening to dislodge from their earthly tethers. Pitchfork sums it up well: "a Deep South-meets-the-Subcontinent fantasia."

Pigeons' dissonant-yet-pastoral psych-pop makes use of Wednesday Knudsen's seemingly conflicting strengths: her airy, 60s French pop-inflected vocals, and her tenacious shredding on guitar. Buoyed by Clark Griffin on bass and Rob Smith (also of Rhyton), Pigeons can turn on a dime from gauzy Future Games-era Fleetwood Mac to a riffing psychedelic shredfest.

Inhabiting the space between the minimalist avant garde and psych-folk, P.G. Six (Amish Records, Drag City) has assumed a number of configuration over his long career. First surfacing as a member of Memphis Luxure, the band that would become Tower Recordings (along with Matt Valentine), Gubler's output fuses an unlikely range of influences including 60s British folk, country rock, and experimental music.

Rhyton (Thrill Jockey) is a group of experienced sonic voyagers, comprised of David Shuford (a.k.a. D. Charles Speer), Jimy SeiTang (Stygian Stride), and Rob Smith (Pigeons). Their hallucinatory grooves rework ancient forms, instrumentation and scales of Middle Eastern and Greek traditions, and incorporate them into the context of scorching improvised rock.
